25th tRNA Conference 2014

Posted on June 20, 2014www.trna2014.gr

We are very pleased to invite you to participate in the 25th tRNA Conference. The meeting will be held on September 21-25, 2014 in Greece and will bring together a wide range of researchers from all over the world.

This year's Conference will celebrate 50 years of tRNA research and 25 fruitful and stimulating meetings and we anticipate the participation of more than 250 attendees. Several prominent scientists in the field have already agreed to present their latest findings.

The abstract submission deadline and Early bird registration fees deadline is June 30, 2014.

For more information on abstract submission, registration or accommodation and for the current list of speakers, please visit the conference website www.trna2014.gr or our Facebook account.
